SUMMER UPDATE

Dear Audio-Reader listeners,

Welcome to our Summer Program Guide for July through September 2024! We hope you will find something on Audio-Reader's programming to entertain you, learn about a new topic, stay connected to your community, or while away those hot summer days with a good book or two!

We continue to offer new ways to listen, with our new text-based website offering easy and convenient ways to catch up on programs or stream the live broadcast.

We have updates regarding our recent volunteer appreciation event and even some "award-winning" news to share.

As usual, summer nights mean Broadway musicals with our Audio Description program at Kansas City's Starlight Theatre. This year's offerings include classics such as The Little Mermaid and Peter Pan to newer shows like Shrek the Musical.

We hope all our listeners stay cool in the heat and have a great summer!

Nick Carswell
Program Manager

CONTINUED IMPROVEMENTS TO AUDIO-READER PROGRAM WEBSITE

We announced our new Audioreader.net website in our spring program guide, and we are excited to continue to improve the website as the best place to explore our programming, listen to online streams and our web archive, and learn more about our programming without the additional website information, images, text or design that exists on our main website.

The page is designed to be simple and clean, with minimal information so that users of screen-reading apps like JAWS can get to the info quickly and simply.

On AudioReader.net you can:

- Listen to the Live Stream
- Browse the Digital Archive
- Explore the complete Program Guide
- Go through the Daily Schedule

We hope this dedicated webpage will be a useful place to access information and enjoy our programming directly.

If you have questions or feedback about the new webpage, contact Martha at (785) 864-2900 or mkehr@ku.edu

VOLUNTEERS CELEBRATED AND PROGRAMMING RECOGNIZED!

In mid-April, over 150 volunteers, staff and guests celebrated the amazing volunteers who give their time to share the gift of sight through sound.

Our guests of honor were Harold and Donna Riehm who read the Children's Hour and On The Lighter Side on Audio-Reader's Saturday programming. Harold and Donna achieved the outstanding milestone of 40 years volunteering for Audio-Reader.

We were thankful to welcome listener Shirley Fudge who spoke about the impact of Audio-Reader's programs, and we played audio from the many voicemail message that listeners provided via our comment line. Thank you to everyone who left message of gratitude and appreciation. It means so much to our volunteers.

In other exciting news, Audio-Reader's programs were recognized by the International Association of Audio Information Services at their annual conference:

IAAIS Program of the Year (Consumer Information):

The Downtown Outdoor Sculpture Exhibition brochure, read by TJ Harrison and produced by Nick Carswell
